SAN FRANCISCO HEARING JUDGES

Except as provided below, in any matter in which a pleading being filed is for a Los Angeles venue case, but the case is assigned to a San Francisco Hearing Judge, the pleading shall be sent directly to the Clerk's Office in San Francisco. (See Rule 55, Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California)

Pleadings being submitted for filing in the Hearing Department on the due date or one court day prior to the due date may be submitted to the Clerk's Office in Los Angeles unless otherwise ordered by the assigned Hearing Judge in a specific proceeding. However, immediately upon submission to the Clerk's Office in Los Angeles, a fax copy must also be sent by the filing party to the Clerk's Office in San Francisco. The fax number to be used in San Francisco for these exceptions is: (415) 538-2043. The Clerk in Los Angeles will stamp the original pleading "Received" and forward it to the Clerk's Office in San Francisco. If the pleading meets filing requirements, the Clerk's Office in San Francisco will file the pleading as of the date it was "Received" in Los Angeles.

This order is effective December 1, 2003, and shall remain in effect until further order of the Presiding Judge.
